

Announcements – Jordan

Good morning, and welcome to worship. It is good to have you with us today, whether in person or online.

Please remember to sign in for worship. There is a list in the foyer, on the podium by Racene's office. Sign in is requested in the event that contact tracing needs to be done by the health department.

BROWN BAGS AND COVID 19

For many years our church has provided Christmas bags for about 30 residents at the Health Center at Christian Care Communities. Due to Covid 19, they are asking for donations to help pay for the items they will need to order.

We would like to have all donations by the end of October. If you would like to donate, please make your check payable to the CWF and write brown bags on the memo line. You can leave the check in the church office or mail it to Louellen Stivers, 182 Fern Lane, Shelbyville, KY 40065. Thank you for helping to brighten the lives of Health Center residents at Christian Care Communities during Christmas. If you have any questions, please contact Louellen Stivers (502) 633-6672 or Janet Crow (502) 648-1120. Thank you.

Kid's Korner – Jordan

Call to Worship – Philippians 4:4-9

4 Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

5 Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near.

6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

7 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. 9 Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

Joys and Concerns – Jordan

Please keep the following in your prayers –

Jason Dooley, who is Jeanie Coleman’s nephew. Jason is recovering from a stroke.

Nancy Kirk’s brother-in-law, Jim Leismer, who is recovering from a stroke.

The Sorrel family. The father, Steve, passed away from a heart attack while on vacation in Arizona. He was driving at the time and his wife, Anne, was injured. They live in Simpsonville and have two sons.

Andi Summers is recovering at home after shoulder replacement surgery Tuesday.

Continue to remember at home – LaMar Hundley and Rochelle Phillips.

Please continue to remember those who have been affected by the Covid virus, the wildfires, the flooding, and so many other difficulties.

Remember those who are residents of the nursing homes and assisted living centers, who have been unable to receive in-person visits from family and friends during the many months of the pandemic. Here in Shelbyville, remember those at the Masonic Home, Crescent Place, Amber Oaks, Crestview, and Hometown Manor. Please consider taking a few minutes and sending a card or making a phone call. If you would like a list of those from our church who are in one of those facilities, please contact the church office.

If you would like a copy of the complete prayer list, it is at the end of the bulletin for this morning. Copies can be downloaded from the church web site or by scanning one of the QR codes posted in the church.

Message – Dave

Message Title – What Did Jesus Do? He Condemned Self-Righteousness

Scripture Reading – Luke 11:37-46

37 When Jesus had finished speaking, a Pharisee invited him to eat with him; so he went in and reclined at the table.

38 But the Pharisee was surprised when he noticed that Jesus did not first wash before the meal.

39 Then the Lord said to him, “Now then, you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

40 You foolish people! Did not the one who made the outside make the inside also?

41 But now as for what is inside you—be generous to the poor, and everything will be clean for you.

42 “Woe to you Pharisees, because you give God a tenth of your mint, rue and all other kinds of garden herbs, but you neglect justice and the love of God. You should have practiced the latter without leaving the former undone.

43 “Woe to you Pharisees, because you love the most important seats in the synagogues and respectful greetings in the marketplaces.

44 “Woe to you, because you are like unmarked graves, which people walk over without knowing it.”

45 One of the experts in the law answered him, “Teacher, when you say these things, you insult us also.”

46 Jesus replied, “And you experts in the law, woe to you, because you load people down with burdens they can hardly carry, and you yourselves will not lift one finger to help them.

47 “Woe to you, because you build tombs for the prophets, and it was your ancestors who killed them.

Invitation Hymn

Offering Meditation – Dave

Open your hearts to the love God instills in them. God loves you tenderly. What he gives you is not to be kept under lock and key, but to be shared. The more you save the less you will be able to give. The less you have, the more you will know how to share. Let us ask God, when it comes to ask God for something, to help us to be generous.

Mother Teresa—In My Own Words

Offering Prayer

All powerful and ever-living God, we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks. All things are of your making. All times and seasons obey you. You chose to create us in your own image and set us over the whole world in all its wonder. You made us the stewards of creation, to praise you every day for your wisdom and power. May we imitate your Son, Jesus in his life of service. May we be faithful stewards of all your gifts among the people of God. In the name of Christ we pray, amen.

Doxology – played, but no singing

Communion Meditation – Dave

Jesus said: I am the bread of life. All who come to me shall not hunger, and all who believe in me shall not thirst. With Christians around the world and throughout the centuries, we gather around these symbols of bread and wine—simple elements that speak of nourishment and transformation.

Prayer for the bread and cup.

Prayer – Farell Hill

The Lord's Prayer

*This we pray in the name of Christ, who taught us to pray,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.
Amen.*

Words of institution – when Jesus met with his disciples for the Last Supper, he took the bread and broke it. As he broke it, he said, “this is my body which is broken for you. This do in remembrance of me.”

Sunday, October 11, 2020

And he took the cup also and said, "this cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Benediction – Dave

Go forth with this truth lodged firmly in your heart: there is nothing you can do or say that will separate you from the love of God. The love that was in Christ is the same love that is in us today. In every moment of our lives, God knows who we are, and with patience and love, will offer us what we need. Go now, in his grace, mercy, and love. Amen, and amen. God bless you.
